1. Introduction

1.1 Background/ Foreword

Integrated care systems (ICSs) are partnerships that bring together providers and commissioners of NHS services across a geographical area with local authorities and other local partners to collectively plan health and care services to meet the needs of their population.

ICSs are part of a fundamental shift in the way the health and care system is organised. Following several decades during which the emphasis was on organisational autonomy, competition and the separation of commissioners and providers, ICSs depend instead on collaboration and a focus on places and local populations as the driving forces for improvement.

They exist to achieve four aims:

- Improve outcomes in population health and healthcare.
- Tackle inequalities in outcomes, experience and access.
- Enhance productivity and value for money.
- Help the NHS support broader social and economic development

Each ICS is comprised of an Integrated Care Board (ICB), NHS Providers, the local authorities, and other local partners in a given geographical area. An Integrated Care Board has the function of arranging for the provision of services for the purposes of the health service in accordance with the National Health Service Act 2006 and the Health and Care Act 2022.

The ICB will use its resources and powers to achieve demonstrable progress on these aims, collaborating to tackle complex challenges, including:

- Improving the health of children and young people
- Supporting people to stay well and independent
- Acting sooner to help those with preventable conditions
- Supporting those with long-term conditions or mental health issues
- Caring for those with multiple needs as populations age
- Getting the best from collective resources so people get care as quickly as possible.

The Integrated Care Board and each responsible local authority whose area coincides with or falls wholly or partly within the Board's area must establish a joint committee known as an Integrated Care Partnership. The ICP must prepare an Integrated Care Strategy setting out how the assessed needs in relation to its area are met. The Terms of Reference for the ICP and the Health and Wellbeing Board, a local authority function, will be aligned to this Constitution to ensure the ICS meets the health and care needs of the population in its area and delivers its agreed vision of 'Better Lives for the people of Lincolnshire'. The name of the ICS is 'Better Lives Lincolnshire'.

The following partner organisations are part of the Lincolnshire ICS:

- East Midlands Ambulance Service NHS Trust (EMAS)
- Lincolnshire Community Health Services NHS Trust (LCHS)
- Lincolnshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust (LPFT)
- United Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust (ULHT)
- Lincolnshire County Council (LCC)

1.2 Name

1.2.1 The name of this Integrated Care Board is NHS Lincolnshire Integrated Care Board (“the ICB”).

1.3 Area Covered by the Integrated Care Board

1.3.1 The geographical area covered by the ICB is Lincolnshire which is served by seven District and Borough Councils (Borough of Boston, District of East Lindsey, City of Lincoln, District of North Kesteven, District of South Holland, District of South Kesteven, District of West Lindsey and led by one upper tier Local Authority which are fully coterminous and supported by the registered primary care practice populations in Lincolnshire.

1.3.2 The upper tier Local Authority is Lincolnshire County Council.

1.4 Statutory Framework

1.4.1 The ICB is established by order made by NHS England under powers in the 2006 Act.

1.4.2 The ICB is a statutory body with the general function of arranging for the provision of services for the purposes of the health service in England and is an NHS body for the purposes of the 2006 Act.

1.4.3 The main powers and duties of the ICB to commission certain health services are set out in sections 3 and 3A of the 2006 Act. These provisions are supplemented by other statutory powers and duties that apply to ICBs, as well as by regulations and directions (including, but not limited to, those made under the 2006 Act).

1.4.4 In accordance with section 14Z25(5) of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 1B to, the 2006 Act the ICB must have a Constitution, which must comply with the requirements set out in that Schedule. The ICB is required to publish its constitution (section 14Z29). This Constitution is published at www.lincolnshire.icb.nhs.uk

1.4.5 The ICB must act in a way that is consistent with its statutory functions, both powers and duties. Many of these statutory functions are set out in the 2006 Act but there are also other specific pieces of legislation that apply to ICBs.

Examples include, but are not limited to, the Equality Act 2010 and the Children Acts.

Some of the statutory functions that apply to ICBs take the form of general statutory duties, which the ICB must comply with when exercising its functions. These duties include but are not limited to:

- a) Having regard to and acting in a way that promotes the NHS Constitution (section 2 of the Health Act 2009 and section 14Z32 of the 2006 Act);
- b) Exercising its functions effectively, efficiently and economically (section 14Z33 of the 2006 Act);
- c) Duties in relation children including safeguarding, promoting welfare etc (including the Children Acts 1989 and 2004, and the Children and Families Act 2014):

- g) Provisions of the Civil Contingencies Act 2004.

1.4.6 The ICB is subject to an annual assessment of its performance by NHS England which is also required to publish a report containing a summary of the results of its assessment.

1.4.7 The performance assessment will assess how well the ICB has discharged its functions during that year and will, in particular, include an assessment of how well it has discharged its duties under:

- a) section 14Z34 (improvement in quality of services),
- b) section 14Z35 (reducing inequalities),
- c) section 14Z38 (obtaining appropriate advice),
- d) section 14Z40 (duty in respect of research)
- e) section 14Z43 (duty to have regard to effect of decisions)
- f) section 14Z45 (public involvement and consultation),
- g) sections 223GB to 223N (financial duties), and
- h) section 116B(1) of the Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Act 2007 (duty to have regard to assessments and strategies).

1.4.8 NHS England has powers to obtain information from the ICB (section 14Z60 of the 2006 Act) and to intervene where it is satisfied that the ICB is failing, or has failed, to discharge any of its functions or that there is a significant risk that it will fail to do so (section 14Z61).
